About Group Tasting Reservations

Tasting Fee:

Tasting fee is $6/person and includes five 1 oz. samples of wine OR four 3 oz. samples of beer. We ask you to call and have the number of people who want wine OR beer the day prior. (Note that group tasters will receive a $2 off card for a bottle of wine or a growler of beer.)

No Call, No Show:

No call, no show groups will be charged the full amount of the tasting fees based on the number of people that was specified in the reservation.

Cardholder Responsibility:

The cardholder accepts full responsibility for any damage, theft or unscrupulous behavior cause by the group. Intoxicated members will not be served and groups with intoxicated members may be asked to leave.

Legal Drinking Age:

All members of a group must be of legal drinking age and be prepared to present a valid identification to prove it. If any members are caught attempting to use false identification, the group will be asked to leave the property.

If Delayed:

If your group is running 15 or more minutes behind please call us to make sure we can still fit you in for a tasting.

Outside Food & Beverage:

Starkey's Lookout does not allow any outside food or beverage. You may purchase wine or beer to go but no open containers come in or leave property.
